AUSTIN PARKINSON

HEAD COACH - 7TH SEASON

Entering his seventh season as coach of the IUPUI women's basketball program, Austin Parkinson has lifted the Jaguars program into a perennial Summit League contender.

Parkinson inherited a three-win team when he took over as the head coach days prior to the start of the 2010-11 campaign, and has led IUPUI to three 20-win seasons in four years, five straight appearances in the Summit League Tournament, three postseason WNIT selections and the programs' first D-I postseason win in 2014. That postseason victory over Central Michigan in the WNIT marked the Jaguars 23rd of the year, which set a Division-I program record for wins in a season. In 2016, they once again defeated Central Michigan in the first round of the WNIT to add to their blossoming post season success.

During his tenure, Parkinson was named the Summit League Coach of the Year in 2012-13, but his success has been built around two primary philosophies - keeping Indiana players at home and defense. Of his five recruiting classes, over half of the players he has signed have been from inside state lines and all of his 16 players have either been from Indiana or bordering states. Once the student-athletes get on campus, they quickly get a taste for Parkinson's emphasis on defense. In his five seasons, the Jags have ranked in the Top 3 in the league in scoring defense three times and during that span, they had one of the best on-ball defenders in the region in Dee-Dee Bellamy, who was the Summit League Defensive Player of the Year in 2012-13.

In total, Parkinson has mentored ten players in his six seasons that have gone on to win Summit League honors, including six that have earned All-Summit League honors. Kerah Nelson and DeAirra Goss lead that group as Nelson was a four-time All-League selection, including two-time First-Team honoree, and Goss was a two-time All-League selection in her two seasons with the Jags. In 2016, Danielle Lawrence and Mikale Rogers became the first pair of underclassmen to both be named to the First-Team All-Summit League in program history, and the first teammates to do it since 2009.

Prior to leading the women's basketball program, Parkinson served as an assistant coach of the IUPUI men's basketball staff for two seasons and helped both Robert Glenn and Alex Young elevate to First Team All-Summit League honors in 2010. In addition, the Jags' 25 wins in 2009-10 were one shy of the program's single-season record in that category.

Parkinson was a four-year letterwinner at Purdue from 2000-04 and closed his career tied for tenth on the Boilermakers' all-time assist list after leading the squad in that category in both his sophomore and seniors seasons. Additionally, he led the Big Ten in assist-to-turnover ratio in each of his final three seasons. He received both his B.S. ('04) and Masters ('06) from Purdue in Organizational Leadership and Supervision. In his prep days, he played at Northwest High School in Kokomo, Ind., and in the Spring of 2014 he was inducted into the inaugural class of the school's Hall of Fame.

Parkinson comes from impressive basketball pedigree as his father, Bruce, is Purdue's all-time assist leader and a member of the Indiana Basketball Hall of Fame. His grandfather, Jack, played for the legendary Adolph Rupp at Kentucky and is a member of the Indiana and Kentucky Basketball Halls of Fame.

Parkinson and his wife Whitney live in Indianapolis, as the couple welcomed their first child, Wren Violet Parkinson, to the world on Sep. 23, 2016.
