TITLE BOUT REMATCH

- The Pioneers defeated Omaha last week in four sets to open up Summit League play on a high note
- DU hit .265 as a team in the Summit League Championship rematch and held the Mavs to a .099 mark
- Kayla Principato led all players with 18 kills, coupled with a .279 swing percentage and three block assists
- Monique Domme notched her second double-double of the year with 31 assists and 14 digs, while Nola Basey tallied her second as well with 16 kills and 10 digs
- Cassidy Rooke surpassed 1,000 digs on her career, the 15th Pioneer to do so, with a season-high 23 in the win

STEADY AS A ROCK

- Rooke has anchored Denver's back line for three years now, average 3.46 digs per set over her career and totaling 1,013 in a Pioneer uniform
- The Rancho Santa Fe, Calif., native also fills in for the setters on occasion, recording 181 assists in her three years with 48 coming in the 2016 campaign
- When given the opportunity, Rooke will deal a heavy serve as she owns 59 service aces while at DU, including 11 for the 2016 season

PIONEER PRESTIGE

- Ruth Okoye has been active on offense and defense, currently ranked 31st in the NCAA with a .393 hitting percentage, 38th with a 1.29 blocks per set average and 107th with 58 total blocks
- Okoye is also tops in the Summit League in hitting percentage and blocks per set, and tied for second in total blocks
- Emma Willis also cracks the top 150 in the NCAA in blocks per set, currently 140th with a 1.09 average
- Willis is also second in the Summit League in blocks per set and seventh in total blocks
- Kayla Principato joins Okoye in the top 10 hitting percentage in the Summit League, currently ranked seventh with a .288 rate, and is eighth with 45 total blocks and fourth with 1.00 blocks per set
- Moni Corrujedo is currently ninth in the league with a .274 attack percentage, while Basey is tied for ninth with 13 service aces and sixth with a 0.30 aces per set average, Olivia Novotny sits eighth with a 0.29 aces per set average, and Rooke is seventh with a 3.66 digs per set average

WHERE IT MATTERS MOST

- As a team, Denver has broken the top 100 in six categories starting with 31st in hitting percentage (.269), 37th in blocks per set (2.54), 59th in opponent hitting percentage (.170), 67th in assists per set (12.56), 75th in service aces per set (1.47) and 84th

in kills per set (13.29)

- In the Summit League, the Pioneers are first in hitting percentage and blocks per set, second in kills per set, service aces per set and assists per set, and third in total blocks

THERE IS NO ROYAL ROAD TO INDIANA

- Denver improved to 3-1 on the year with the win in Omaha, bringing its five-year total to 26-28 since Tom Hogan joined the staff in 2012
- In 2016, the Pioneers prove to be a force on the court with a .263 attack rate on the road with 13.69 kills, 13.25 assists, 1.56 aces, 14.50 digs and 1.88 blocks per set
- The defense comes to play as well, holding opponents to a .176 rate with 11.75 kills per set, while the opposition totals 10.94 assists, 0.69 aces, 14.50 digs and 1.94 blocks per set

CONFERENCE CALL

- DU is 37-10 in Summit League games since Hogan joined the staff, including the opening weekend win against Omaha
- The Pioneers have outpaced their league foes in several categories, hitting .282 with 14.27 kills and 2.17 blocks per set, while opponents are hitting .179 with 12.43 kills and 1.71 blocks per set

VIP MEMBERS ONLY

- Corrujedo became the 13th member of DU's 1,000 kill club after her first in the opening set against San Diego State
- The El Paso, Texas, native currently owns 1,048 kills in her career and is nine away from 10th all-time in Pioneer history
- Domme became the 14th member of Denver's 1,000 assist club after her fourth in the opening set against Georgetown
- She currently sits at 1,046 in her career and is 231 away from 13th all-time in DU history
- Rooke became the 15th member of the 1,000 career digs club for the Pioneers after her 10th in the second set against Omaha
- She currently sits at 1,013 in her career and is 115 away from cracking the top 10 all-time in DU history

KEEPING UP THE PACE

- Basey can reach 1,000 kills by November at her current pace of 2.14 kills per set, she can also surpass 1,000 digs if DU reaches the NCAA tournament at her current pace of 2.11 per set
- Boteju can become a member of the 1,000 assist club by October at her current pace of 5.14 per set
- Okoye can break the 300 total blocks barrier by October at her current pace of 1.29 per set

Tom Hogan joined the Pioneers' coaching staff as the first assistant in the summer of 2012 for head coach Jesse Mahoney and was named the associate head coach after the 2014 season. Ahead of the 2016 season, Hogan was named the seventh head coach in DU volleyball history.

Denver capped off its second 27-win season with its second straight trip to the NCAA tournament, finishing 27-8 on the season. The Pioneers faced

No. 5 seed Washington after winning The Summit League Championship and earning The Summit League regular season title with a 13-3 record.

The Pioneers wrapped up the 2014 season with the program's best record in history (27-7, 13-3 Summit) and Summit League regular season and tournament titles. The team also made its first appearance in the NCAA Tournament in program history at Moby Arena in Fort Collins, Colo.

As the offensive coordinator at DU, Hogan has helped the team achieve success, becoming one of the most efficient offenses in the country. The Pioneers recorded .245, .266, .266 and .257 offense efficiencies in 2012, 2013, 2014 and 2015, respectively, ranking 44th, 20th, 19th and 30th in the country.

Hogan is also the recruiting coordinator for DU. Denver's 2014 recruiting class was ranked 28th by PrepVolleyball.com, the first top-30 recruiting class in program history.

Hogan brings a wealth of coaching experience to Denver, including an Olympic silver medal. He was a member of the coaching staff of the USA Women's National Volleyball Team from 2002-2008. During this time, Hogan helped the team win the silver medal at the Beijing 2008 Olympic Games, the first time USA competed in the gold medal game since 1984. Among many others, he coached former AVCA All-Americans and three-time Olympians Stacy Sykora and Robyn Ah Mow-Santos.

In 2005, Hogan helped Team USA earn gold at the 2005 NORCECA Championships and silver at the World Grand Champions Cup. In September of 2007, he was named the U.S. Olympic Committee Coach of the Month after help resurrecting Team USA from a disappointing 2006 season. 2007 saw Team USA bounce back to a 26-11 record en route to earning 2008 Olympic Games qualification at the FIVB World Cup. Hogan was also head coach of Team USA during the 2008 Pan American Cup in Mexico, helping the U.S. receive a berth in the 2009 FIVB World Grand Prix and a fifth-place finish with a youthful team.

In 2014 and 2015, Hogan served as the head coach of the USA Junior National Team. The U.S. won the Global Challenge tournament in 2015, overcoming Italy in the finals in five sets. In 2014, the team won the gold medal in the NORCECA U20 Tournament, defeating the Dominican Republic in the semifinals 3-0 and Cuba in the finals 3-0. The team also qualified for the Junior World Championships.

Beginning in 2011, Hogan also began as head coach of the U.S. Girls' Select A1 and A2 Volleyball Programs. The USA Select National Team, also headed by Hogan, earned a silver medal at the 2013 USA High Performance Championships and a bronze medal in 2012.

Hogan served as an assistant coach with the USA Junior National Team in 2004, and was a member of the 2005 Junior National Team that won the gold medal at the NORCECA Championships. He also gained valuable experience working with the USA Youth National A2 Team. Hogan began his USA Volleyball coaching career in 2003 as an apprentice coach working with the USA National Team, the USA National Training Team and the USA Youth National Team. His USA High Performance Pipeline coaching experience includes USA National Team, National A2, JNT, JNTA2, YNT, YNTA2, Select A1 and Select A2.

Hogan also holds overseas professional-level coaching experience, having spent a season as assistant coach for the Volero Zurich team, member of the Swiss Women's Professional League competing in the European Cup and Champions League.

Hogan is a 2002 graduate of Miami (Ohio) with a bachelor of arts degree in management information systems and a minor in marketing, and graduated with a master's in sports administration from Xavier (Ohio) University in 2004. Hogan served as the head coach of the Miami (Ohio) University National Champion women's volleyball club team in 2002, after leading the team to the national final in 2001.

Hogan resides in Denver with his wife, Lindsay, and their daughter Summer. Lindsay works for the United States Olympic Committee in Colorado Springs as a director of media and public relations.

Assistant Coach Katelin Batten

Alma Mater: Colorado State

Experience: Fifth Season

Quick Hits:

- 2013-14 Associate Head Coach at USA Girls' Select National A2 Invitational Team Program
- 2013-14 Assistant coach at USA HP Holiday Camp
- 2014 Training coach for the Junior National Team training before the FIVB NORCECA Championships
- 2014-16 Lead coach at USA HP Tryouts
- 2015 Assistant coach on USA Youth A1 Team at High Performance Championships, Bronze Medal
- 2016 Assistant/Head coach USA Youth A1 High Performance Championships

Katelin Batten completed her fourth season under head coach Jesse Mahoney in 2015. Since joining the program, the Pioneers have put together the 12th, 13th, 14th and 15th winning seasons in program history and made back-to-back appearances in the NCAA Tournament in 2014 and 2015.

Denver capped off its second 27-win season with its second straight trip to the NCAA tournament, finishing 27-8 on the season. The Pioneers faced No. 5 seed Washington after winning The Summit League Championship and earning The Summit League regular season title with a 13-3 record.

The Pioneers wrapped up a history-making season in 2014 going 13-3 in Summit League play and 27-7 overall. The 2014 team won both the regular season and conference tournament titles and earned the program's first automatic bid into the NCAA tournament. Batten led the Pioneer defense to a conference best 16.18 digs-per-set average with libero Kate Acker earning All-Summit League honors.

In 2013 Batten and the Pioneers matched their 2012 win total finishing second in Summit League regular season play. During the 2013 conference tournament, the Pioneers came from two-sets down to beat South Dakota in the Summit League Semifinals to advance to the program's first ever league final. Denver narrowly missed a bid to the NCAA tournament after falling to IUPUI in the conference tournament championship match. In their senior campaigns, Brea Muhle and Colleen King both earned All-Summit League, AVCA All-Region, and AVCA Honorable Mention All-America honors. Muhle also finished the season ranked 6th in the NCAA in Hitting Percentage.

In her first season as assistant, Batten helped Denver to a 17-13 overall record and a 10-8 mark in the Pioneers one and only season in the Western Athletic Conference. She worked closely with the Pioneers libero corps of Kate Acker, Sammy Berger and Kelly Morton, guiding them to a 14.7 digs per set average.

Batten also works heavily within the USA Volleyball High Performance Pipeline. In 2015 Batten served as an assistant coach on the Youth A1 Red Team at the USA High Performance Championships, winning a bronze medal in the International Women's division. In 2014 she assisted in training the USA Junior National and Youth National Teams before the NORCECA championships in which a gold and silver medal were won respectively. She also served as a coach during the 2013 and 2014 USA HP Holiday Camps and was the featured coach in USA Volleyball's March 2014 blog.

Batten came to DU with a wealth of playing experience after playing four years at Colorado State University. She was also mentored by some of the greatest figures in club and youth volleyball.

Prior to joining DU, Batten was an assistant to former Ohio State head coach, Jim Stone at Front Range Volleyball Club. She also served as an assistant with the Norco Volleyball Club under former University of Nebraska head coach, Terry Pettit.

At CSU, she earned Mountain West Conference Libero of the Year honors in 2009, along with AVCA All-America and AVCA All-Region recognition. She currently holds the MWC record and CSU record for all-time career digs and helped CSU earn NCAA Tournament appearances in all four years including a Sweet Sixteen appearance in 2009.

She graduated with a BA in Journalism and Technical Communication from CSU in 2010 and is currently working towards a MS in Organizational Leadership from the University of Denver.

Batten resides in Denver.

Assistant Coach Jesse Tupac

Alma Mater: UCLA

Experience: First Season

Tupac joined the Pioneers' coaching staff as the second assistant and offensive coordinator before the 2016 season. He will also assist in evaluating and recruiting future prospects.

Tupac brings experience from the college, international and club levels, most recently as the director of volleyball operations at Penn State. Penn State made a sweet sixteen appearance and finished with a 28-6 record during Tupac's season with the Nittany Lions.

Internationally, Tupac has worked with USA Volleyball in various positions. Most recently, he served as an assistant coach for the women's indoor national team at the 2015 Pan American Games in Toronto, Canada, where the US won gold for the first time since 1965. In 2014, Tupac worked with both the US junior and senior teams at the NORECECA World Championship Qualifiers. He served as the technical coordinator for the women's volleyball indoor youth national squad and worked for the gold medal-winning women's indoor national team.

Tupac previously served as a graduate assistant at Iowa State and volunteer assistant at Loyola Marymount (Calif.). At Iowa State, the Cyclones advanced to the second round of the 2014 NCAA Tournament and finished ranked second in the Big 12. Tupac assisted LMU with training, video coordinating, data analysis and the compilation of scouting reports for the 2013 season.

Tupac has been honored for his work in volleyball as a recipient of the 2015 AVCA 30 Under 30 awards, which recognizes 30 up-and-coming volleyball coaches under 30 years old at all levels of the game.

At the club level, Tupac has served as a coach and administrator for the All Iowa Attack Volleyball Club and Sunshine Volleyball Club. As the head coach of the All Iowa Attack 18's Team, the squad finished in first place at both the Iowa Regionals and the Northern Lights USAV Qualifier. In 2014, he coached the 17-Red team to a 17-National gold medal. Tupac also spent seven years with the Sunshine Volleyball Club and guided the 2013 18-South Bay team to a bronze medal at the 18-Nationals. Both clubs experienced great growth during Tupac's time with them; the Sunshine Volleyball Club expanded from 15 teams to 23 teams, while the All Iowa Attack Volleyball Club grew from five to nine teams.

In college, Tupac played for coach Al Scates as a member of the UCLA men's volleyball team. He graduated with a Bachelor's degree in English and later began pursuing his Masters of Education at Iowa State.

Director of Volleyball Operations Eduardo Fiallos

Alma Mater: Miami (Ohio)

Experience: Fourth Season

Eduardo Fiallos joined the Pioneers' coaching staff in the fall of 2013 as the volunteer assistant coach.

He was introduced to volleyball as a high school senior in Phoenix, Ariz., and played as a member of the University of Arizona men's club team. While working towards his degree and playing, he began coaching in the spring of 1993.

Since earning his CAP level I credential in 1993, he has continued coaching Junior Olympic volleyball, coaching for clubs in Arizona, Louisiana and California and at camps in Arizona, Louisiana, California, Florida and Colorado. During his career, he has guided three different teams to top-30 finishes (out of over 300 teams) at the Volleyball Festival.

In 1997, Fiallos was initiated into the collegiate coaching ranks when he became the volunteer assistant at his alma mater. He went on to coach at Cal State - Dominguez Hills, which plays in one of the premier NCAA Division II conferences in the nation. He has also coached Division I volleyball at the University of Louisiana- Lafayette. During his collegiate coaching, he also taught volleyball and volleyball coaching classes.

He moved to Denver in the summer of 2004 and immediately began working with Front Range Volleyball Club as the assistant coach of 15 White, the 2005 RMR Champion and silver medal winner at Junior Olympics in 2005. He was the assistant of 18 Gold during the 2006 season.

He spent the fall of 2006 as an assistant coach at North Carolina State University in Raleigh, N.C. He returned to Denver and Front Range after the completion of the college season and worked full time for the club as the network administrator. He spent the 2007 club season as the assistant coach of 18 Black. Black medaled twice during his tenure, winning a silver medal at the Northern Lights National Qualifier and a bronze medal at the AAU National Championships. He coached 14 Royal for one season, 16 Red for one season, 17 Silver for two seasons and 18 Gold for one season.

Fiallos served from 2007 to 2015 as an administrator for Colorado Crossroads Junior National Qualifier and Tournament Magic, which ran several multi-day junior volleyball tournaments, including the Big South Junior National Qualifier. He handled all aspects of event registration and scheduled and assisted in all phases of tournament administration for these events.

He is currently the Recruiting Coordinator and Technical Advisor for the Colorado Volleyball Association.

"After shaking off our nerves in the first set, I feel we played extremely well competing with a tough top 25 team in Michigan State," said coach Hogan. "This may not be the result we were looking for, but this match has inspired our team and has shown us that our process is working and our growth is real."

"We responded well this afternoon after a very emotional match against LMU," said coach Tom Hogan. "We executed offensively at a high level hitting at .402 efficiency. We struggled at times with our block, but look to make the right adjustments tonight as we battle against a tough Utah State team."

Nola Basey was the lone Denver representative on the Pioneer Classic All-Tournament team after leading DU's offense with 12 kills and nine digs, followed by Cassie Baird with 12 kills and five digs. Okoye cemented her first career Summit League Defensive Player of the Week Award after posting five block assists in the match, totaling 24 blocks at the Classic.
