WHAT'S UP: With just eight matches remaining in the season, the Western Illinois volleyball team is preparing to take on Fort Wayne and Denver this weekend. The Leathernecks travel to Fort Wayne on Friday (Oct. 21) before playing host to the Pioneers on Sunday (Oct. 23) at noon.

SCOUTING THE OPPOSITION: The Mastodons are in third place in the league standings with a 5-3 record (9-12 overall). Fort Wayne is currently on a two-game skid after falling to Oral Roberts (3-0) and IUPUI (3-2) this past weekend. The Mastodons lead The Summit League with 1,118 kills, good for 13.31 kills/set. They are also solid defensively, as their 152 total blocks (1.82/set) rank third in the conference. Fort Wayne's 1,118 total assists ranks 18th in the NCAA.

Denver sits in second place in the league with a 6-2 Summit League record (14-6 overall). Most recently, the Pioneers knocked off then-undefeated South Dakota in straight sets on Oct. 16. Emma Willis leads the league in hitting percentage (.364) and blocks per set (1.17). As a team, Denver is hitting .266 and averages 13.37 kills/set.

SERIES HISTORIES: This will be the second time Western has played both teams this season. The Leathernecks dropped straight sets to Fort Wayne on Sept. 25 and Denver on Oct. 9. Fort Wayne leads the all-time series 16-5. The Leathernecks are still in search of their first program win over Denver, as the Pioneers lead that series 7-0.

DIGGIN' IT: As a team, the Leathernecks rank ninth in the nation with 1,462 total digs (16.43/set). Senior Kaili Simmons has accounted for 457 of those, followed by Shalyn Greenhaw with 207 and Claire Grove with 178. For the second week in a row, Simmons ranks second in the nation in total digs and 14th with 5.19 digs/set. She is also The Summit League leader in both categories and has eclipsed over 20 digs in a single match 11 times this season, with three matches of at least 30 digs.

A LOOK AT THE LEATHERNECKS: Western heads into Friday with a 1-7 mark in league play and 4-20 overall. Greenhaw leads the team offensively with 254 kills, which ranks fifth in the league. Abby Skryd is averaging 7.13 assists/set and has 627 on the year. She also leads the team with 24 service aces. Defensively, Simmons is the team leader with 421 digs. Lexi Kolschefske has 56 total blocks on the season.
